

New process for joining our Group Life Mastertrust

We no longer require you to complete the Deed of Participation to join our Group life Mastertrust.

You can now join by simply completing the Group Life Mastertrust application form.

Why have we changed this?

The advantages of the new application process are:

- ✓ we can accept a scanned copy by email, removing the need to post documents and possible delays with the postal service;
- ✓ only one signature will be required by someone with delegated authority at the company.

These changes together are designed to help make it easier and quicker for employers to join our Mastertrust.

If more information is required about our Mastertrust, please refer to our brochure.

If you have already completed the Deed of Participation, you can still send this to us by post.
